

In 2000, 189 Heads of State and Government signed the Millennium Declaration leading to the formulation of 8 development goals to be achieved between 1990 and 2015.

The Millennium Development Goals (MDG) can be summarised as follows:

- 1- To reduce extreme poverty and hunger by half.
- 2- To ensure primary schooling for every child.
- 3- To promote gender equality.
- 4- To reduce child mortality by two thirds.
- 5- To reduce maternal mortality by three quarters.
- 6- To combat HIV/AIDS, malaria and other serious diseases.
- 7- To guarantee environmental sustainability.
- 8- To create a worldwide partnership for development.
