

This Humanitarian Action Project had as a purpose to diminish the effects of the Tropical Depression 16 on the Valle and Choluteca Districts. The actions developed aimed to restore the life conditions of 21 affected communities.

In order to do so, 481 families regain access to clean water; 608 families restart the agricultural production; 10 communities regain access to services and potential income sources; and 32 houses were rehabilitated according to emergency standards.