

Youth training for the use of computers (1st class with 12 students); to support the training of computer teachers; enhancement and leveling of further education to 110 children aged up to 5 years, from a socioeconomic level very low; provide information services to the general population, particularly to higher education students residing in the area.

Start Date: Jun.1995

End Date: May1996